Registration/Continental Breakfast & Exhibitors

Welcome & Introductions
Dr. Gary Kelly, Superintendent, DuQuoin CUSD 300

Leadership Defined - Panel
Daniel Booth, Principal, Carbondale Community High School
Tom Colboth, Principal - Washington School, Marion CUSD #2
Matt Hickman, Principal - DuQuoin High School, CUSD #300
Thomas Webb, Principal - Carterville Intermediate School, CUSD #5

This will be devoted to various aspects of school leadership and I will serve as moderator. All the panelists have the questions I will be asking and I think it will be representative of a good cross section of various school levels with each principal having some interesting items to share. I will be making name plates to have on the stage for them. I will need you to make sure we have the tables and chairs on the stage area for their presentation.

Updates on Balancing the Effects of Trauma
Dr. Nancy Brodbeck, Macon/Piatt ROE

This session will include lessons learned in year two of the Trauma Informed Partnership Pilot Program implemented in Macon County and overview what is planned for moving forward.

Micro-Credentials: Competency-based Skill Recognition for Leaders
Dr. Susan Homes, Dr. Jason Leahy and Arlin Peebles, Illinois Principals Association

Explore the what, how, why and growing utilization of micro-credentials (also commonly referred to as digital badges) to recognize educators for their mastery of skills aligned to professional standards.

A New Educational Model
Christian Thompson and Evan Brown, SIU Carbondale, Educational Administration and Higher Education

This presentation will feature A New Education model focusing on new innovative ways for reaching diverse audiences using technology, new education methods, sports, and diversity.

Updates from Springfield
Sara G. Boucek, General Counsel, IASA
This session will cover legal updates and policies from Springfield.

Professional Development On-Demand with Ed Leaders Network
Arlin Peebles, Illinois Principals Association

Ed Leaders Network (ELN) is an online, on-demand professional development platform provided free to Illinois public school educators through a partnership with the Illinois Principals Association and the Illinois State Board of Education. Attend this session to learn how ELN can transform professional development delivery in your school or district. You will receive a guided tour through the learner and manager roles and preview courses on everything from Leadership and Management to Teaching and Learning and even State Mandated Training.

Libia “Libi” Gil, Chief Education Officer, Illinois State Board of Education

Dr. Gil’s responsibilities include leading all student support, academic programs, school assistance, and district support services as ISBE embarks on the work to implement the ESSA State Plan for Illinois. She brings deep classroom experience, education system expertise, and passion to ensure that every child has fair access to a high-quality education. She has been a teacher, bilingual resource specialist, desegregation officer, elementary school principal, assistant superintendent for curriculum and instruction, and district superintendent. Recently she served as assistant deputy secretary and director for the Office of English Language Acquisition at the U.S. Department of Education under Secretaries of Education Arne Duncan and John King. Prior to this role, she was vice president for practice at the Collaborative for Academic, Social and Emotional Learning (CASEL) in Chicago. She was also a senior fellow and managing director at the American Institutes for Research (AIR), where she developed and co-led the AIR for English Language Learners.
