Golden Opportunities

VOLUME 19, NUMBER 10
THE NEWSLETTER FOR SOUTHERN ILLINOIS LEARNING IN RETIREMENT (SILIR)
June 2016

June Speaker: Ronald Naversen

MASKS OF CULTURE

Ronald Naversen earned his BA from Miami University in Communications and Theater; his MFA in Scenic Design from Carnegie Mellon; and his Ph.D in Theater History and Performance Studies from Southern Illinois University where he became Professor of Theater Design before retiring in 2015. Ron is currently working as a freelance theater designer for New Harmony Theater, Marquette University Theater, University of Southern Indiana and McLeod Summer Playhouse.

Masks of Culture will describe the various functions of masks and provide a visual survey of their uses in contemporary culture.

<td>DNA and Genetics</td>
<td>Fran Oros</td>
<td>This course will include a description of DNA, and an explanation of what is meant by the genetic code contained in DNA. We will look at how mutations occur, and study some common diseases caused by mutations. Some of the more common DNA tests such as 23andme, Ancestry.com, and Nat. Geo. Geno will also be discussed.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Thursday, July 21st</td>
<td>Self-driving Cars &amp; Nuclear Fusion</td>
<td>Ken Johnson</td>
<td>This course will examine how nuclear fusion works and discuss why the scientific community has become so excited. Self-driving cars are here! Virtually the entire auto industry and many hi-tech companies have joined forces to produce self-driving cars. We will discuss the reasons for this revolution, the kinds of cars being developed, and the implications that they will have on our lives in the future.</td>
