LEARNING IN RETIREMENT (SILIR)

SILIR is an educational community of learners who desire to continue learning, expand horizons and enhance personal development. This community offers members a unique opportunity in which peer learning, collaborative leadership and active member participation are fundamental. The SILIR curriculum is chosen, designed and usually led by members.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to adults 50 and older who live within commuting distance of Carbondale. Membership dues are $25.00 per year. Individual courses are offered on a wide variety of subjects for a small fee (usually $10.00 per course).
